

DUNHAM THE SPIANS

present

"THE PARLOUR GAME"

A One-act Comedy

by Philip Johnson

Produced by Gina Hutchinson

Cast:   The Mayor                 :     Harry Litherland
          The Mayoress           :     Moire Hawkeford
          Kitten                   :     Julie Morton
          Lady Headland          :     Barbara Litherland
          Mrs. Craddock          :     Sylvia Rose
          The Vicar               :     Tim Harrison
          A Policewoman          :     Gill Fecitt

The play takes place in the room known as "The Mayor's Parlour" in the Town Hall of a provincial town. It is the afternoon of an Autumn day. In another part of the building a bazaar is taking place.

-----

The Society would like to take the opportunity to welcome Gill Fecitt making her debut as a new acting member and we hope to see her in many more productions.

We would also like to thank Sandra Capper for her invaluable back-stage help during this production and very much hope that we will also be seeing her "treading the boards" in the near future.

Thanks also to Babara Waterhouse (Make-up), Mark Hutchinson (Lighting and Effects) and Ron Hutchinson, Ray Waterhouse, Frank Duckworth (staging).