Produced by Esme Duckworth

When it was suggested that our Autumn Production could be a pantomime with both the Junior and Senior members taking part together I realised it would be quite an undertaking and that we were venturing into the unknown! Nevertheless, it was an exciting prospect, and everyone promised to pitch-in.

Hopefully, you will all be settling down to an evening of first-class entertainment (as usual!!), and if we are as successful as I expect us to be, it will be due to the great cast in tandem with all those officials overleaf who have dedicated so much of their time and patience fitting a quart-sized spectacular onto a pint-sized stage. I am very grateful to one and all.
